Overview

The Sunset is a 50-suite apartment-style hotel located at 1111 Burnaby Street in Downtown Vancouver's West End. Originally constructed as a purpose-built apartment building, the property offers significantly more space than a traditional downtown hotel room, with suites averaging nearly 600 square feet, each featuring a full kitchen and private balcony.

The hotel relaunched under independent local management in February 2026 following the wind-down of its former global operator in late 2025. The Sunset specializes in extended stays and residential-style accommodations within walking distance of Sunset Beach and approximately 2.5 kilometres from BC Place, host venue for the FIFA World Cup 26™ matches in Vancouver.
